News from our Verifying Organisations and Stakeholders

The Professional Standards Authority for Health and Social Care (PSA) who accredit our register of complementary healthcare practitioners, have published Making care safer for all: a manifesto for change which sets out their priorities to help the next UK government deliver better and safer care for all.

Sustainable Healthcare Day 2024, organised by the Integrated Healthcare Collaborative (IHC) of which CNHC is an associate member, takes place on 6 April and this year's theme is stress. We'll be sharing information on our social media channels on the day - so do make sure you are following us on Facebook, X (formerly Twitter), LinkedIn and Instagram. You can find links to them at the bottom of this newsUpdate and on our website.

The Association of Reflexologists (AoR), who act as one of CNHC's Verifying Organisations for reflexology, have announced some exciting changes. They have recently appointed Deborah Cook as their new Chair, two new Board Members - Naomi Wilson and Kathy Fear, and Bronwen Packham as Chief Executive. They have also moved to new offices and launched a new website. You can find out more here.

CNHC London Boroughs Special Treatment Exempted Status

Under Part II of the London Local Authorities Act 1991 you are required to apply for a Special Treatment licence from a local council if you provide certain treatments from a premises based in that borough.

CNHC has been granted exempted status by the London Special Treatment Group for CNHC registered therapists working in London Boroughs. This means that any CNHC registered complementary therapist wishing to open premises in London will be eligible for a license exemption.
