Welcome to our August newsUpdate

As we near the end of the August, we would like to report that we are now able to face-to-face contact. Our therapists have now received both the vaccine and are able to work under new guidelines. The government is now reviewing the evidence for opening up schools, and we hope to see some movement on this soon.

In the “new normal” we find ourselves in, there is still much uncertainty and understandable anxiety. We have received some feedback from our registrants about feeling overwhelmed, so we are now providing some supportive guidance on preparing to return to working safely. The Integrated Healthcare Collaborative (IHC) has been working closely with the government and the Professional Standards Authority (PSA) to provide guidance for complementary therapists during the coronavirus pandemic.

The IHC has developed a series of guidelines for therapists working in local lockdowns. This includes clear guidance on how therapists can work during lockdowns. The IHC has also developed a series of guidelines for therapists working in local lockdowns. This includes clear guidance on how therapists can work during lockdowns. The IHC has also developed a series of guidelines for therapists working in local lockdowns. This includes clear guidance on how therapists can work during lockdowns.

We have also been working closely with the government and the PSA to provide guidance for complementary therapists during the coronavirus pandemic.

The IHC has developed a series of guidelines for therapists working in local lockdowns. This includes clear guidance on how therapists can work during lockdowns. The IHC has also developed a series of guidelines for therapists working in local lockdowns. This includes clear guidance on how therapists can work during lockdowns. The IHC has also developed a series of guidelines for therapists working in local lockdowns. This includes clear guidance on how therapists can work during lockdowns.

CNHC Chair

Best wishes,

Coronavirus (COVID-19) update

Returning to work and working safely

We have updated our Advice to Registrants on following government guidance on returning to work and working safely during the coronavirus pandemic. Our guidance includes advice on how to return to work and work safely during the pandemic. We have also updated our advice on when to return to work and work safely during the pandemic. We have also updated our advice on when to return to work and work safely during the pandemic. We have also updated our advice on when to return to work and work safely during the pandemic. We have also updated our advice on when to return to work and work safely during the pandemic.

IHC calls for guidance during local lockdowns

The Integrated Healthcare Collaborative (IHC), of which CNHC is an Associate Member, has written to the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, the Rt Hon Alok Sharma MP, asking for the Government to provide clear guidelines for complementary therapists during local lockdowns.

Re-building your business - Part 1 - reconnecting with existing clients

In the first of a series of articles, CNHC Registrant Katherine Greenslade-Criss offers her tips on reconnecting with existing clients after lockdown. Step 1 focuses on how best to reconnect with your existing clients.

IHC: Deadline to apply for the second grant

Grants applications opened on the second grant in the Self-Employed Income Support Scheme (SEISS). The deadline for the second grant is 24 January 2021, so make your claim for the second grant now.

Other News

Accessible clinical practice through a “mutually respectful exchange of skills”

In this article, CNHC Registrant Marina Duguid shares her innovative approach to the way we collaborate and work with patients. Her approach is based on the idea of a mutually respectful exchange of skills, which benefits therapists and patients alike.

Sports Massage added to the CNHC Accredited Register

Our Accredited Register is now open to the new discipline of sports massage in July. If you practise sports massage and would like to register with us, or are already a CNHC Registrant but would like to add an additional discipline to your registration, you must have completed a course that meets our criteria for complementary therapists.

SEISS: Deadline to apply for the second grant

The deadline to apply for the second grant in the Self-Employed Income Support Scheme (SEISS) is 24 January 2021. If you are eligible for the second grant, make your claim now.

Volunteering opportunities for CNHC Registrants

CNHC is donating £50,000 to Cancer Research UK to support their work. This donation will be used to support the cancer centres and patients going through cancer. The donation will be used to support the cancer centres and patients going through cancer.

IHC calls for guidance during local lockdowns

The Integrated Healthcare Collaborative (IHC), of which CNHC is an Associate Member, has written to the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, the Rt Hon Alok Sharma MP, asking for the Government to provide clear guidelines for complementary therapists during local lockdowns.

SEISS: Deadline to apply for the second grant

Grants applications opened on the second grant in the Self-Employed Income Support Scheme (SEISS). The deadline for the second grant is 24 January 2021, so make your claim for the second grant now.

Other News

Accessible clinical practice through a “mutually respectful exchange of skills”

In this article, CNHC Registrant Marina Duguid shares her innovative approach to the way we collaborate and work with patients. Her approach is based on the idea of a mutually respectful exchange of skills, which benefits therapists and patients alike.

Sports Massage added to the CNHC Accredited Register

Our Accredited Register is now open to the new discipline of sports massage in July. If you practise sports massage and would like to register with us, or are already a CNHC Registrant but would like to add an additional discipline to your registration, you must have completed a course that meets our criteria for complementary therapists.

SEISS: Deadline to apply for the second grant

The deadline to apply for the second grant in the Self-Employed Income Support Scheme (SEISS) is 24 January 2021. If you are eligible for the second grant, make your claim now.

Volunteering opportunities for CNHC Registrants

CNHC is donating £50,000 to Cancer Research UK to support their work. This donation will be used to support the cancer centres and patients going through cancer. The donation will be used to support the cancer centres and patients going through cancer.